

Spyre Therapeutics Announces Pricing of $350.0 Million Public Offering of Common Stock

October 5, 2026

WALTHAM, Mass., Oct. 05, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Spyre Therapeutics, Inc. ("Spyre" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: SYRE), a clinical-stage biotechnology company committed to developing next-generation therapies that elevate the standard in immunology by delivering more complete disease control, greater durability, and a simpler treatment experience for patients, today announced the pricing of its previously announced underwritten public offering of 4,117,648 shares of its common stock at a price to the public of $85.00 per share. The gross proceeds to the Company from this offering are expected to be approximately $350.0 million, before deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering expenses. In addition, the Company has granted the underwriters of the offering an option for a period of 30 days to purchase up to an additional approximately $52.5 million of shares of the Company's common stock offered in the public offering under the same terms and conditions. The offering is expected to close on or about October 7, 2026, subject to satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

Jefferies, TD Cowen, Leerink Partners and Stifel are acting as the joint book-running managers for the offering. LifeSci Capital is acting as passive bookrunner for the offering.

Spyre intends to use the net proceeds from the proposed public offering to continue to advance its programs in Gastroenterology, Rheumatology, and Dermatology, including to fund preclinical studies, clinical trials, manufacturing, and Phase 3 readiness, as well as a new program to advance SPY072 into late-stage development for hidradenitis suppurativa. Any remaining proceeds will be used for other ongoing research and development, working capital and other general corporate purposes.

Safe Harbor / Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements contained in this press release, other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include statements regarding Spyre's expectations regarding the consummation of the offering and the satisfaction of customary closing conditions related to the offering. The words "believe," "may," "will," "potentially," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "predict," "target," "intend," "could," "would," "should," "project," "plan," "expect," the negatives of these terms, and similar expressions that convey uncertainty of future events or outcomes are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words.

These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including, market conditions and satisfaction of customary closing conditions related to the offering, uncertainties and risks arising from regulatory feedback, including potential disagreement by regulatory authorities with the Company's interpretation of data and the Company's ongoing or planned clinical trials for its product candidates; the Company's ability to elevate the standard in immunology by delivering more complete disease control, greater durability, and a simpler treatment experience for patients; the potential for interim data not being delivered within expected time frames or final data not being consistent with or different than the previously disclosed data reported for the Company's programs; the expected or potential impact of macroeconomic conditions, including inflationary pressures, rising interest rates, general economic slowdown or a recession, changes in tariff/trade and monetary policy, volatile market conditions, financial institution instability, as well as geopolitical instability, including the ongoing military conflicts between the United States and Iran, Ukraine and Russia, conflicts in the Middle East, and geopolitical tensions between the United States and other countries, including China, on the Company's operations; the implementation of changes in law, tariffs, sanctions, export or import controls, and other government measures that could impact the Company's business operations, including restricting international trade by the United States, China or other countries; and those risks described in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, its subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, as well as in other filings and reports that the Company makes from time to time with the SEC. Moreover, the Company operates in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment, and new risks emerge from time to time. It is not possible for the Company's management to predict all risks, nor can the Company assess the impact of all factors on the Company's business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements it may make. In light of these risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, the forward-looking events and circumstances discussed in this press release may not occur and actual results could differ materially and adversely from those anticipated or implied in the forward-looking statements.

You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Company cannot guarantee that the future results, levels of activity, performance or events and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements will be achieved or occur. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statement for any reason after the date of this press release to conform these statements to actual results, to reflect changes in the Company's expectations, or otherwise, except as required by law.
